MRS. ROBERTS SUCCUMBS

Last Friday morning at 7:30 o'clock the spirit of Mrs. Margaret Roberts, aged 69 years, bid earthly friends a last farewell and entered its heavenly home prepared for those that love and serve the Master as did this good woman of God. She had been ill since last Christmas when she suffered a stroke of paralysis and it had been evident for some time that the end was near. She had long been a member of the Christian church and her life had been one filled with deeds of kindness and charity—always at her happiest when assisting some one in making life's burden lighter and spreading the sunshine of existence to all with whom she came in contact.

Mrs. Roberts is survived by two children, Mr. Scott Roberts, of Nashville, Tenn., and Mrs. Matthew Guy, of Denver, Colo.; two sisters also survive, they being Mrs. Dotia Scott, of this city, and Mrs. Bettie Davis, of Indiana. Mrs. Roberts was the stepmother of Mr. John G. Roberts and Miss Bettie Roberts, both of this city.

The funeral was held at her late residence Saturday afternoon at 2:30, with services conducted by Rev. Clyde Darsie, assisted by Rev. B. W. Trimble. Burial took place in Machpelah cemetery.

MARRIED SUNDAY

A wedding of much interest to the many friends of the contracting parties was quietly solemnized at Howard's Mill Sunday afternoon when Mr. F. D. Richardson and Mrs. J. L. Brown were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Chappel. The bride is the widow of the late Dr. Brown, of North Middletown. She has for many years been the efficient chief operator of the telephone exchange at that place and has won for herself the love and respect of all in that community, whose wishes are for her happiness. The groom is a prominent merchant of Camargo and farms extensively. He is a gentleman of high integrity and numbers his friends by the score. After the ceremony they motored to Olympian Springs for a few days' visit, after which they will be at home at the residence of the groom at Camargo.

J. Y. ROGERS AND MISS DAVIS

United in Marriage at the Fourth
Avenue Baptist Church, Louisville, Last Thursday.

Mr. James Y. Rogers, of this city, and Miss Mary Pratt Davis, of Louisville, were united in marriage at the Fourth Avenue Baptist church in Louisville on last Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The wedding was attended by a large crowd of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The church was artistically decorated with lilies, cut flowers and potted plants and presented a lovely appearance. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Ed. Davis. The groom entered the church with his best man, Mr. Wilbur Maguffin, and proceeded to the altar where the sacred words were spoken that welded the two together as man and wife. After the wedding the couple left for Leitchfield, where they are visiting relatives of the groom and before coming to this city to make their future home, will attend the wedding of a niece of the bride in Louisville the latter part of this week.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. J. W. Davis, of Louisville, and is considered one of the most attractive and cultured young ladies of the Falls City and is quite popular with a host of friends.

The groom is a native of Leitchfield but has made his home in this city for a number of years and is at present the senior member of the firm of The Rogers Co. He is a man of sterling character, whose word is as good as his bond and during his stay in this city has merited and won an enviable place in the business, social and religious life of Mt. Sterling. He is exceedingly popular and has hosts of friends who join in wishing them every happiness this life affords and extending heartiest congratulations.

The announcement of the engagement was made several weeks ago, but the date of the marriage was not given out and it came as a surprise. The bride is pretty and attractive and both are prominent socially. They left on the 4:43 o'clock train for Lexington, and from there departed on an Eastern honeymoon trip.

The bride for the ceremony wore a stylish tailored suit of navy blue cloth, with harmonizing hat of the new citron shade, trimmed with handsome brown wings. She made a sweet and charming picture.

WAR SEEMS IMMINENT

President Demands Immediate Release of American Troopers—Carranza Given One More Chance.

A demand for the immediate release of the American troopers taken prisoners at Carrizal, coupled with a stern notification that the United States expects an early statement of the purposes of the Carranza government was telegraphed to Mexico City by Secretary Lansing.

The note discloses that the State Department received a communication from the de facto government stating that the Carrizal fight was the direct result of orders to attack American soldiers moving otherwise than toward the border, personally issued by General Carranza to Trevino and by the latter communicated to General Pershing.

In reply Lansing requires that the de facto government transmit a definite statement "as to the course of action it had determined upon" through the usual diplomatic channels, and "not through subordinate military officers."

In reporting the rescue of Capt. Lewis Morey and four troopers, Maj. Jenkins, of the Eleventh Cavalry, heading the relief column, announced that the country near Carrizal had been thoroughly covered and no further survivors of the fight were found.

A virtual embargo on commerce between the United States and Mexico pending determination of their future relations is being planned by the Administration.

About 15,000 additional troops under the command of the Department of the East have been ordered to start for the border at once, it was announced at headquarters.

They include: Florida, Second Infantry; Virginia, First Infantry and First Signal Corps; Maryland, First Infantry; New Hampshire, First Infantry; Maine, Second Infantry; District of Columbia, Third Infantry and First Separate Infantry; Pennsylvania, names not given, but will include three regiments infantry, one battalion engineers, one battalion Signal Corps, one field hospital and one ambulance corps; Delaware, First and Second battalions of First Infantry.

Kentucky Soldiers Mobilize.

"Our country has called. We are needed. Whether it be to Fort Thomas or to Mexico, we are ready. We may never again see Lexington. But if we don't we'll know that no more noble cause could keep us from returning, and we glory in that one thought."

With this expression written on the face of every man, Lexington's first company of militia, and, for that matter, the first in the State of Kentucky to leave its home station, departed Monday morning, not for Mexico, but for the mobilization camp at Fort Thomas, which is the first leg of a journey which will, in all probability, soon end at the Mexican border, or perhaps even in the mountainous interior of that chaotic country. The rest of the Kentucky militia is expected to go to Fort Thomas in the next few days.

Clyde Darsie, and the interment took place in Machpelah cemetery under the auspices of Watson Lodge No. 32, I. O. O. F., of which he had long been a member. Besides his wife, Mr. Caywood is survived by three sons, William, of Akron, O.; Gano, of Greencastle, Ind., and Oscar, of Lexington, to whom the Advocate extends sympathy in their bereavement. Burglars were busy again in this city Friday night and entered the homes of Mr. Wm. Eubank, Sr., and Mr. Anderson Bogie, both on Maysville street. At Mr. Eubank's they secured a small amount of change from the purse of a young lady visitor, while at Mr. Bogie's they failed to find any money but took Mr. Bogie's watch and keys and tied them to the front door knob. Not content with this they cut his pants into threads. No one was awakened at either house and no trace of the thieves has been found, although the police are busy on the case.
